

Coach Reese was born and raised in Denver Colorado. He attended Thomas Jefferson High School where he played football and earned a scholarship to Lincoln University (Jefferson City, MO).

In 2007 Coach Reese began his coaching career as an assistant at Denver South High School. He coached there for two seasons before taking a break from coaching to focus on other professional pursuits.

In 2011 Coach returned to coaching at Sheridan High School where he coached for Dwayne Davis, a mentor and good friend. Sheridan narrowly missed the playoffs but ended the season 6-4, their first winning record in over five years.

Coach Reese had the opportunity to coach at Thomas Jefferson High School and Denver East High School following Sheridan. In 2014 Reese became the Wide Receivers Coach at Valor Christian, a role he held for the next 4 seasons. From 2014 - 2017 Valor played for three State Championships winning two of those games. While Reese is proud of what the program accomplished, he is also proud of the spiritual growth that he was able to share with the staff and players during that period.

In 2018 Coach Reese accepted the Wide Receivers position at Cherry Creek High School.

During the spring of 2017 Reese connected with Nancy Jackson and Athletics & Beyond. Since that time Reese has participated in the many outreach programs that A&B has to offer. Reese feels that A&B gives him the best opportunity to serve the community that he grew up in and is looking forward to helping young people reach their maximum potential.

Reese married his wife April in 2016, they have one son born in 2018. The Reese family currently calls Aurora their home.
